

Air Compressor Notes

Slide this outer ring back, insert quick connect, and slide forward.

This slides into this.

You can adjust the pressure by turning the knob on top!

- Always wear _____.
- Compressed air can be _____.
- Never point a stream of compressed air at your _____ or _____, and never at _____.
- Hold it tight! Before disconnecting an _____ or an _____, make sure you have a firm hold on the hose. The pressure inside will propel the hose at a high speed.
- Check the MAX. Pressure. Check the compressor outlet pressure and the _____ allowed for each tool before you connect it. Failure to do this can result in serious injury to yourself and damage the tool.
- Increase tool life. _____ out of the tank. Air storage tanks should be drained at regular intervals (weekly, monthly).
- Keep your hands away from a compressor that is running or has recently been running. Compressor parts can get quite _____, and your hands could get caught in _____.