

Band Saw

- Never make adjustments to the saw while it is _____.
- Blade width determines _____.
- Adjust the upper blade guide as _____ to the piece you're cutting as _____, but not so close that you can't see the blade where it enters your work.
- If a blade should break while the machine is in operation, _____ immediately and step back. Let the machine come to a complete stop _____ removing the broken blade.
- Round objects. When cutting round, cylindrical or small pieces of wood, the operator must _____ it to a jig ("V"-block), or use the miter gauge, or a back-up block.
- Do not stop a coasting band saw unless it has a _____.
- Stop the band saw before attempting to back out of _____ or _____ cuts.
- Position your fingers on your work so that they are not in direct line with the blade. Keep fingers a minimum of _____ from the blade.
- _____ allow the operator to cut tighter curves.
- Good support? Make sure whatever you're cutting is supported firmly by the _____.
- Slow cutting action and burnt wood usually indicates a _____.